

PayPulse™ Surveys

Offered by Denarius Human Resources, Inc.

Features & Benefits

PayPulse™ Surveys are a “rapid response” compensation survey service providing you the opportunity to gather market pricing pay data for one or two jobs with a specific comparison group. Denarius Human Resources’ PayPulse™ Surveys provide the benefits of independent third party data collection, rapid turn-around of survey requests, and easy to use procedures for survey sponsors and participants.

While not intended to take the place of comprehensive pay practice surveys, PayPulse™ Surveys are an excellent way to take the “pulse” of the market for a position while avoiding breaches of data confidentiality or taking on the higher legal risks of directly exchanging (i.e. “I’ll tell you, if you tell me.”) pay information with competitors. Past sponsors and participants have said:

“It’s a great way to verify existing market surveys, or to discover whether the market is trending. Also a great way to be responsive to management.”

“I find the PayPulse™ Surveys valuable and an accurate, legal way to find out market pay conditions rather than trying to call around”
